

Grade 5 October News

Language Arts...

Continuing spelling quizzes, Scene skit, workbook work on grammar (possessives), Stories (Elephant & Fire stories), dialogue writing, continuing to read BFG, do comparison/contrast between book & movie versions of BFG.

Mathematics...

Students have been taking up problems and figuring out how to work around multiplication and division equations. Being able to break down the problems at hand through a logical lens and finding out the solutions by properly structuring a plan of attack.

Science...

Students will study elements and chemical compounds that are part of the body, the importance of water and mineral salts, the importance of sugars, proteins, fats and nucleic acid, various shapes of animal cells, the structure of the animal cell, and the functions of organelles in the animal cell.

History...

This month we began to look at Ancient Greece in detail. Students created and presented work on: the Olympic Games, Greek philosophers, mathematicians, and Greek literature. Students were also able to practice their computer skills.

