

Grade 4 May News

Language Arts...

Students have been given the chance to get back into spelling words and learning more about new grammatical concepts that will help prepare them for next year.

Mathematics...

Students have been refining their math skills and preparing for the following year. Checking off all of the boxes in the math department of things.

Science...

Students explored maps, how to orient themselves in the field with a compass, landform identification, and began the rock cycle.

History...

Students have been working on creating a comic strip that presents and informs other students about different Chinese inventions. We also began learning about Ancient Greece.

